It is declared that several of the leading railway systems of England will run their locomotives with Texas oil. Texas is growing bigger every day.

If somebody in authority would move to dismiss the Schley case before it goes to the jury, he would make himself solid with the majority of American people.

"I am going to select the best men for the best positions," says President Roosevelt. This ought to meet with the approval of everybody—even of the only living ex-President.

If members of the Farmers' Institute would brush up their memories, they may recall certain resolutions adopted with great applause at their sessions last winter, which will be peculiarly applicable Nov. 5.

The fact that there is little red fire and few brass bands in the present campaign should afford the better opportunity for a study of the most important question presented—shall the tax burdens be equitably apportioned?

And Admiral Schley is to receive full pay, at the rate of $7,500 per year, until the close of the Court of Inquiry. After that the poor man must get along on $5,025 annually. After all, Republics are more grateful than popular quotations declare.

The reformer who wants a law charging Congressmen ten cents a word for all speeches published in the Congressional Record is, too late to harm the agricultural interests of the country. Gen. Dick's 40,000 word speech is already in print.

With scarcely a fortnight yet to live, Czolgosz goes to his death almost unnoticed. No sickly sentimentalist writes verses bemoaning his fate; no silly women have sent him costly flowers. No opportunity has been given him to pose as a hero; but shorn of the notoriety given similar criminals, he must meet his fate unwept for and unmourned. This is as it should be.

Death removed a useful and popular citizen of Akron yesterday, when it claimed Mr. Noah B. Steiner, the president of the Chamber of Commerce. For ten years Mr. Steiner had worked unceasingly to make Akron a greater city, and the high degree of success which attended his efforts won for him the admiration of all his neighbors. South Akron, especially, is indebted to him for giving it the advantage of the shrewd business ability and well directed enterprise that caused it to develop so rapidly as an industrial and residence quarter.

The United States Steel corporation continues to defy Ohio, no answer having been received from the trust, nor any of its constituent companies, although they were notified by the Secretary of State over two months ago to qualify under the foreign incorporation law. And the Secretary of State and the Attorney General dismiss the matter with the declaration that they have "done their duty." Will the million voters of Ohio pocket the steel trust's insult as meekly as has been done by their paid representatives at the capital?

WISE and Otherwise.

Did you register?

Turkeys begin to roost high.

Meanwhile, Chief Durkin smiles.

Evidently those swindlers are also humorists.

And to think some liquor was being sold illegally in Summit county!

Don't tell Gov. Nash that they are planning a score or two of prize-fights.

Why doesn't some one make a freak bet just to get up a little excitement.

Maybe the "famous John T." will require more than $200 to capture the swindlers.

Mince pie is hurrying into season with a rapidity which makes Homeopaths and Allopaths congratulate each other.

How much trouble he avoids who does not look to see what his neighbor says, or does, or thinks, but only to what he does himself, that it may be just and pure.—Marcus Aurelius.

Strong probability that that service and years since they were all here before will have taken some of that friskiness out of the Eighth regiment boys who are coming in November.

There are parts of this country, especially in the region north of Akron, where hills are long, steep and numerous and not enticing to owners of machines, and where automobiles have not yet been seen. The advent of a hardy adventurer causes indescribable consternation among dogs, horses and cattle. Children take to the tall trees and whole neighborhoods come out on the steps and watch the "chuff-chuff" machine wade into the hills with vindictive energy.

A surprisingly large number of soldiers who have served an enlistment in the Philippines, re-enlist without coming home and see more service on the other side of the world before returning to the United States. Almost every organization that is sent home because its time is up, has cases of this kind. Soldiers, on being mustered out of service, must wait at least 30 days before they can enlist in the Army of the United States for another term. This month is usually spent in Manila by the soldiers who want more service and its expiration usually sees them back in the ranks, often with a promotion and additional pay.

"While you're talking about the possible annexation of Canada to the United States," said the Distributor of Gratuitous Information, cheerfully, "you're reckoning without the Canadians themselves."

"While there are Canadians, especially the younger generation, who are opposed to the pomp and display incident to the English form of government, they believe in the solidity of such a government and think that the upsurge that accompanies the election of a president every four years is a very bad thing for a country."

"They are having a good enough time of it under the English form of government. They need support no standing army, nor need they have a navy. England stands ready to back them in their quarrels and help their industries in time of peace. They are largely English by birth and sentiment, and are content to let well enough alone."

"It was thought a few years ago that personal regard for Queen Victoria was the mainspring of their allegiance, but since her death the people of Canada have not faltered. The bitterest dissensions in the country are over religious questions and the quarrels that were started over a century ago, between Catholics and Protestants, have been continued and carried up to the present day."

THE PRINTER'S FAULT.

A contemporary recently contained the following line in an obituary notice,

The foam or suds of Walker's Soap in the tub does your week's wash with little rubbing, no boiling, or injury to the cloth. Contains no alkali. You can sit by without lifting a hand and see

Walker's
Soap

do the work that now taxes your strength for a whole day. Read the wrapper, and learn the new way of washing without working.

tee, which no doubt puzzled many readers:

This does not mean anything. It only reveals the possibilities of machine-set type—being what the printers call a "pi" line. To date, an operator on the East Liverpool Crisis wears the belt for getting the most unique "pi" line into print.

A TOAST.

When day with sorrow outrivals night

The morrow pall'd by an inky blight—

And those who loved you when fortune blest,

Have fled—by sadness your soul's oppress'd,

There's one sweet drop in your dregs of woe—

If one woman lov'd you—and told you so.

Were this world mine, with its wealth of gold,

I'd give it her—whose pure heart of gold

Lov'd only me—and enthroned me there—

I'd bless the boon of its sheltering care—

For one true heart in this world of woe

Is priceless—when love hath told you so.

Earth holds no bliss—nor Heaven above

Hath not more power than one woman's love,

To shield, to guide, to bless, and to save—

From cradle, altar—e'en to the grave—

What's grander, nobler, or purer than

A woman's love for a thoughtless man?

Then drink to woman—pure and true.

God grant that one loves each of you.

So fill your glass, and standing all—

To woman drink. The worst who fall

And sin through love and go astray

Is better than he who led the way.

TERRIFIC

Effect of Gasoline Explosion.

Wrecked a Building and Cost a Life.

Bangor, Me., Oct. 17.—(Spl.)—A terrible explosion, probably of gasoline, in the second floor kitchen of Nathaniel Ladd's restaurant, on Harlow st., Wednesday, brought almost immediate death to Miss Haney, whose apartments adjoined, and to Mrs. Mary F. Carrigan, the second cook, and fatal burns to John Barry, a waiter. The explosion wrecked two floors, and falling debris caused minor injuries to a number of people.

In the kitchen at the time were several restaurant employees, who got out safely. Mrs. Carrigan, however, rushed for the upper staircase, but was unable to reach it, and was enveloped in flames. John Barry rushed after her, but, meeting the fire, he had to jump from the window, having been burned. He died at the hospital.

Miss Haney, who was in her rooms, evidently was buried under debris, and then burned to death in addition.

"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeDeis, Cedar City, Mo. "Like others I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me good until I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One bottle cured me. A friend who has suffered similarly I put on the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. He is gaining fast and will soon be able to work. Before he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, indigestion had made him a total wreck."

NEGRO

Held on Suspicion at St. Louis.

Is Thought to be the Murderer of John Gray Foster.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 17.—(Spl.)—A negro, arrested in East St. Louis on suspicion of being Prince Edwards, who murdered John Gray Foster, on the latter's Louisiana plantation, is being held pending investigation. The negro says he is George Duncan, and that his home is in Sparta, Ill. He is said to answer to the description of Prince Edwards. The killing of Foster occurred June 12th last. It was one of the most sensational ever known in Louisiana and resulted in several lynchings.

Hear Col. Bain at Baptist church tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Free admission.

RIOTING

Many Killed and Wounded in Attack on Governor.

Vienna, Oct. 17.—(Spl.)—There has been rioting in Kichenoff, Bessarabia, where one thousand students attacked and wrecked the house of the Governor, the headquarters of the police and the office of the Official Gazette. Many encounters occurred between the students and the police, and 11 persons were killed and 30 others injured.

Backache should never be neglected. It means kidney disorder which, if allowed to run too long, may result in Bright's disease, diabetes or other serious and often fatal complaints. Foley's Kidney Cure makes the kidneys well.

Died Suddenly.

Dr. J. C. McMillen, of Orrville died suddenly at his home, of heart failure, Wednesday morning. He was aged 45 years and had many friends and acquaintances in Akron. Dr. McMillen has a new block in course of construction in Akron, on S. Main st.

WRECKED

The Postoffice and Got Away.

Marauders Rewarded by a Small Sum.

Kingwood, W. Va., Oct. 17.—(Spl.)—The postoffice here was robbed about 2:30 this morning, safe blown and all the glass in the office broken to atoms, making a complete wreck of the entire place. About $106 in stamps and money and a number of registered packages were secured. The robbers, it is thought, crossed the mountains with the object of reaching the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. The damage to the building and offices will reach several hundred dollars.

NEXT YEAR

Completion of Hall's Park Allotment Deferred Till Then.

The Hall's Park allotment has been divided, and nearly all the preliminary arrangements for the sale of the land are complete, but the finishing touches will not be added until spring. There still remains a considerable quantity of grading to be done and this will be the matter that will delay the sale of the lots until next year.

Prices for grading are expected, by the owners of the new addition to Akron, to be lower at that time and the finishing of the work this fall would not, at any rate, have helped the sale materially.

S. A. Ingalls, Crown Point, N. Y., writes: "My wife suffered from kidney trouble for years. She was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure and in less than a week after she began using it, she was greatly improved and three bottles cured her."

RECITAL

Miss Ewart's Pupils Acquitted Themselves Finely.

(Special Correspondence.)

Krumroy, O., Oct. 16.—Last Saturday evening at Krumroy, Miss Jessie E. Ewart gave her third annual piano recital. The program was well rendered, consisting mainly of piano solos and duets. Every number was well received by all present.

The following composed her class of pupils: Edith Trift, Tura Semler, Emma FATAL ECONOMY.

VERY old maxim declares that it isn't economy to pick up pins; the time is worth more than the pins. Similarly it is not true economy to do without Ivory Soap; your health requires the daily removal of the bodily excretions which are discharged through the pores of the skin. These tiny mouths must be kept open, and they should be opened only with a pure soap.

THE DEMOCRAT PRINTS THE NEWS.

To the Street Gang.

Mayor Doyle Wednesday sentenced Mike Kane $2 and costs and 10 days to the street gang for intoxication. Mike once promised the Mayor he would leave town.

J. Odgers of Frostburg, Md., writes: "I had a very bad attack of kidney complaint and tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which gave me immediate relief, and I was perfectly cured after taking two bottles." Be sure you take Foley's.

A Wise Selection.

People who purchase their tickets over the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Ry. to the Pan American Exposition and return, will feel satisfied on getting home that they selected wisely and secured the very best travel accommodations and route that their money could buy. Experienced travelers use the Lake Shore. Its service is prompt, comfortable and most complete of any line to Buffalo and its route the most interesting. For any desired information or copy of Pan American Book, write to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, Ohio. Oct. 8-8-12-17-21.
